

Opportunities for Sponsorship at the 2004 Polar Max

The 2004 Polar Max will be held in Redondo Beach, CA October 19 – 21. The event will bring together the polar environmental monitoring community to focus on relevant issues and provide maximum interactions for users and providers. The Polar Max conference will include many of the most prominent leaders in the environmental monitoring community as keynote speakers and session chairs. This event is a great opportunity for private industry to gain exposure and help make the Polar Max a success by providing sponsorship during the conference.
